LAW

Law Offices of Sarah J. Read, Columbia, MO
2000-present

Solo practice with focus on alternative dispute resolution, mediation, arbitration, negotiation, legislation, and law practice management. Cases have included multi-party mediations involving issues of development and public policy, cases with regulated entities, and high conflict cases. Also teaching Law Practice Management and, when offered, Public Policy Dispute Resolution at the University of Missouri School of Law as an adjunct professor. See www.readadr.com.

Sidley Austin LLP, Chicago, IL
2000-2007 Senior Counsel; 1990-1999 Partner; 1988-1990 Associate

Member of the Alternative Dispute Resolution resource group and the Commercial, Competition and Securities Litigation group. Representations included work as resolution counsel on contested commercial and regulatory matters, including complex multi-party disputes; negotiation counsel on various transactional matters; consulting on regulatory issues and strategic plans; legislative drafting and lobbying (including work on the “Electric Service Customer Choice and Rate Relief Law of 1997” that restructured the electric industry in Illinois); regulatory litigation; and coordination of local counsel on multistate transactional matters. Litigated several cases before state regulatory commissions and in the appellate courts.

Isham, Lincoln & Beale (dissolved), Chicago, IL
1981-1988 Associate

Represented electric and telecommunications companies before regulatory commissions in several states, both as lead and assistant hearing counsel. Appointed in 1984 to serve as interexchange carriers’ representative on the Ohio Telecommunications Advisory Board. Represented corporate creditors in preference and other adversary proceedings in U.S. bankruptcy courts. Assisted in drafting the Illinois “Universal Telephone Protection Law of 1985.” Participated in recruiting and associate training.
